

Signetics Corporation:
Part of the Young Poong Group of Companies

Hello, you are being sent this memo since you have requested information from this company, which is the original Signetics Assembly and Test Operations in Korea. We are and have been a SAT supplier (Subcontract Assembly & Test Supplier) owned by the Young Poong Group of Companies since 1995.

For the information you are seeking for Signetics Part numbers from the original IDM supplier, Signetics Corporation, Philips purchased the original Signetics chip business in 1975 and now has spun that group off as NXP Semiconductor. The information you are seeking is at <http://www.nxp.com/>.

For Philips or (former) Signetics employee benefit information, please use the following contact information:

HR Shared Services NA Customer Contact Center (formerly "PACE"):
888.367.7223.

E-mail the Customer Contact Center at: philips.pace@philips.com

Philips Electronics North America Corporation
3000 Minuteman Road
Andover, MA. 01810.

We hope this answers your questions.

Sincerely,
The Signetics High Technology, Inc. Team.
